

Word ladder

Word ladders are word games invented by Lewis Carrol, who wrote "Alice's Adventures in Wonderland". To solve the ladder, you change a word little by little to become something completely different. Follow the instructions to solve the word ladder below, please.

Four letters.		1. Falls from the sky and makes you wet.
Take away one letter.		2. The past tense of RUN.
Change one letter.	BAN	3. To forbid, make illegal.
Change one letter.		4. The opposite of good.
Change one letter.		5.
Add one letter.		6. If you win against someone, you ? them.
Change one letter.		7. You use it to keep your trousers up.
Change one letter.		8. Makes a ringing sound.
Change one letter.		9. The opposite of ill.
Take away two letters.		10. Another word for us all.
Add one letter.	WET	11. The opposite of dry.