

Slang words and expressions

There are some British and American slang words and expressions below. Try to figure out the correct meaning for each of them among the alternatives under them, please.

1. Me and Chris met some nice birds at the party.
  - a) friends
  - b) food
  - c) girls
2. Look at that bloke over there!
  - a) the traffic is blocked
  - b) man, fellow
  - c) lump, brick, piece
3. Listening to your advice was a daft idea!
  - a) stupid
  - b) brilliant
  - c) good
4. Do you fancy Annie?
  - a) know
  - b) dislike, despise
  - c) like, find attractive
5. She is very nice, but her sister is often nasty.
  - a) unkind
  - b) even nicer
  - c) pleasant
6. He must be loaded, look at the house he lives in!
  - a) poor
  - b) confused
  - c) rich
7. After working all day, we were really beat.
  - a) in a good mood
  - b) tired
  - c) wound up
8. I think I'm going bonkers!
  - a) crazy
  - b) sane
  - c) indifferent
9. I was really blown away by all the attention.
  - a) uncomfortable
  - b) very uneasy
  - c) greatly impressed
10. His jacket looked a bit cheesy, didn't it?
  - a) dirty
  - b) cheap
  - c) expensive
11. She needs to mellow out and enjoy life.
  - a) get rich
  - b) travel abroad
  - c) calm down and relax
12. Let's go to a restaurant and pig out.
  - a) take a drink
  - b) eat a lot
  - c) drink cocktails
13. I have to push off soon.
  - a) push somebody
  - b) open a window
  - c) leave
14. The car was totaled in the accident.
  - a) completely wrecked
  - b) towed away
  - c) partly damaged
15. When he tried to buy her a drink, she told him to take a hike.
  - a) to buy one for himself as well
  - b) sit down
  - c) go away, leave

